

Doctoranytime.gr, a pioneering and dynamic company in the internet/healthcare industry is looking to hire a marketing intern.

THE COMPANY: is building an amazing online service that is improving healthcare every day. Through its pioneering service patients can find the ideal doctor for them and book an appointment anytime online. At the same time doctors expose themselves to all those patients that look for doctors online and can instantly transform exposure to appointment.

JOB ACCOUNTABILITIES

The intern will be highly involved in the extremely interesting sem/seo building process. Depending on his/her skills will be responsible for certain projects.

The intern will have the chance to learn a lot from a great marketing team.

INTERNSHIP will last from mid June till beginning of Aug.
